Class Prophecy

While planning a place to take my vacation I decided to take a rocket ship to the moon. On May 7, 1973 I began my trip, buying my ticket at Forbes' Corner, famous Rocket Air Port on the outskirts of Fritchton, from Susie Folsom who is now a stewardess on a rocketship.

The pilot was Dick Chambers, a General in the world Rocket Ship Corp. The person setting next to me was Finis Fletcher a great engineer who had built the first bridge connecting Europe with the United States. We left earth at 6:00 A.M. and reached the moon at 6:15 A.M. When we reached our destination the first person I saw was Christine Jenkins, the hostess at the "Come Join Us Night Club". She greeted me cordially and invited me to stay to see the floor show. To my surprise the dancer was Carolyn Root, doing a dance with atoms and protons. After leaving the Night Club I stayed in the hotel "Yoodoo Sta" owned by Mervin Ice a great selebrity who married a girl from the moon. They have ten little moon beams. The next day I visited the zoo and found Jim Utt the keeper. I ate my lunch, which consisted of four pills, at a great restaurant "Callstones" owned by Bob Petts, the moon's greatest Chief. After eating lunch I visted in the private planet of Flora Jo Marshall and Bob Fleck who are trying to invent a pill of eternalyouth I rode in a "Moon Jet" which is a taxie cab, and to my surprise the man at the control was John batton. We traviled at a low speed of 500 MPH since the traffic was rather thick that day. He took me to the "I strain" theater featuring Croydon Bowers as the star. He is now a great opera singer. The usher who greeted me was Eugene Davisson who is in charge of the Moonball league. They have won over all the other planets such as Mars, Venice, and Jupiter. Setting next to me in the theater was John Dunlap, owner of the rocketShip I come up on. His wife handles all the profit from his business, and that's the reason he is so successful. After leaving the Eyestrain Theater who do I see but Harry Manning a great driver for "Wreck No More" Jet Tricking Company. Before leaving the moon I visited the laborator "Cut Me Up" where Dacy Briner is the main instructor. Finally I decided I'd better be getting back to earth.

HOMECOMING

Christine Jenkins, senior, was crowned February 13, 1953, by Bob Petts, senior captain of the basketball team as Basketball Queen of 1952-1953.

Nancy Carr, Harold Robinson, Judy Goodwin, Robert Dutton, Billie Patrick, John Sandefer, and Marcia Sanneman began the procession as Phyllis Hatton and Jean Alice Megree played the "Military March". Then came the queen attendants and their escorts. They were Rose Marie Roche, freshman, gowned in a pink formal escorted by Mervin Ice. Dorothy Bosworth, sophomore, gowned in an aqua formal, escorted by Jim Utt. Anita Stewart, junior, escorted by Bob Fleck. Dacy Briner senior, gowned in an orchid formal, escorted by Eugene Davisson. Then came the queen, Christine Jenkins, gowned in a white formal with purple carnations as flowers, thus carrying out the school colors. The crown Bob Petts placed on her head was of purple carnations. The queen was then escorted to her throne on the stage where she reigned through the Fritenton-Decker Chapel game. The queen was saluted by the baton twirlers taught by senior Carolyn Root. Others taking part were the High School cheerleaders Carolyn Petts, Dixie Briner, Myrna Hart. The Junior High yell leaders, Joan Davisson, Nancy Marshall and Rita Fleck. The reserve team consisting of Larry Carr, Penny Utt, Joe Goodwin, John Lampl, Charles Bates, Norman Snyder, Marvin Cook, Sylvan Ice, Connie Clark, Donald Hatton, Joe Sanneman, Gerry Melton and John Patterson also took part.
